Gong Out of the Business.

A saloon-keeper of Kansas City with prophetic vision tells the Star what is going to happen in the liquor trade. He says:

"I have been a saloon-keeper twenty-two years. My place is centrally located, elaborately fitted up, completely stocked and is well patronized. The saloon is for sale—at a bargain, appraised by the usual standards—as I am going to retire from the business. My reason for quitting the liquor trade is not that I am old, or rich, or troubled by my conscience. I simply have decided to get out while the getting is good, for I believe I can read the handwriting on the wall. I believe that the finish of the booze business in this country is in sight, and I prefer to step from under before the roof falls in. I would not undertake to say when nation-wide prohibition is going to arrive, but it is coming, as sure as fate, and it is not many years away.

"In the last five years I have spent my time in front of my bar 'mixing with the trade.' I gave up drinking years before, because I had learned that a man can't drink booze and sell it. I came to know intimately many of the business men who were good patrons of mine, and when one of those ceased to come in, I would take advantage of the first opportunity to ask the reason. Usually they would laugh and answer, 'Oh, I'm on the water wagon for a little while,' but when I pressed them for something more definite, I would get something like this: 'John Barleycorn is going to be killed and buried in this country by his former friends and associates, not by constitutional enemies who never saw the inside of a saloon.'

"The sentiment against booze that has been growing among my patrons the last two years or more is not confined to my patrons and against the booze in my saloon alone. Social and business conditions have changed until booze and booze fighting have no place in the present-day scheme of things. The ability to carry a jag gracefully is no longer esteemed as one of the polite accomplishments of a gentleman, and business life is too strenuous these days for a man to hamper himself with a fuddled brain. And with the realization that they can't themselves drink and remain at the top notch of efficiency, business men are demanding that their employees let booze alone. Corporations and firms are not hiring drinkers, and they are getting rid of old employees who persist in drinking.

"Those things point in just one direction, to my way of thinking. They mean that the men of this country are making up their minds that drinking is bad business, and doesn't offer compensation sufficient to offset the toll of time and money and health it takes.

"Take it from me, sooner or later booze will be banished effectively and completely. A lot of liquor dealers and saloon bums are fond of kidding themselves with the argument that universal prohibition would only result in wholesale bootlegging, more vicious secret drinking and other evasions. I know better. When it becomes a serious offense against the Federal law for a man to manufacture, import, sell, handle or possess intoxicating liquor, booze drinking will cease. And I don't know but that every one will be glad of it in the long run. I've never been proud of being a saloon-keeper, and I don't believe any other self-respecting man can be. We jolly ourselves along with the argument that it is legitimate, recognized by the national government, the state, the county and

Looks Like War with Mexico.

An acute situation between the United States and Mexico has been brought about by President Wilson ordering practically the entire Atlantic fleet to Tampico to enforce a demanded public salute from the Huerta government to the American flag for the arrest of a detachment of marines. The decision to order the warships to Mexican waters followed a long conference of President Wilson, Secretary of State Bryan and John Lind, the President's personal representative to Mexico, who has just returned to Washington and a two hours' Cabinet meeting. Huerta disputes the right of marines to be on shore at Tampico. He denies the obligations demanded, and says he will maintain Mexico's honor as he sees it, at whatever cost necessary.

Killing at Irvine.

Marshals Joe Spivey and Henry Denner shot Frank Garrett at Irvine Thursday night. Garrett and the police had had previous trouble, and it is alleged that Garrett had threatened the officers. Garrett had been to Richmond Thursday and was walking up town in company with Wm. Hackney from the depot with pistol in hand. The officers seeing him with his gun, apprised trouble and ordered him to drop the pistol, and upon his failure to do so, they together, it is said, began shooting at him, and killed him. Hackney, who was with him was shot in the arm, but not seriously hurt.

Our shortage of space has again crowded out some valuable news items. They will appear next week if we can possibly find room for them. Correspondents' letters are set as they are received, hence the last ones to arrive at this office are the ones omitted.

the city, but we know in our hearts that it is a rotten business.

"Anyhow, good or bad, I am going to get out of it before the fireworks begin, and I'd advise every other man with money invested in it to do the same."

Estill Democrats Win.

In the special term of the Estill Circuit Court which convened here Wednesday morning, with Judge M. M. Redwine, who was designated by the Governor to try the election contest cases, the decision went in favor of the four Democratic contestants, namely, Wm. Broadus, against G. W. Powell, for Sheriff; John Horn against Ancil Powell, for Jailor; J. E. Alexander against R. E. West for County Clerk, and J. H. Richardson against J. S. Land, for School Superintendent. The cases were submitted to the Court Wednesday morning and the voluminous record required some time to go over. The case was argued by Attorneys Pedleton and Friend for the Democratic contestants and by Attorneys Gourley and Miller for the Republicans.

Alexander and Richardson, Democrats, were elected on the face of the returns, while Powell, Republican, for Jailor, received a majority of one vote. The Sheriff's race between Wm. Broadus, Democrat, and G. W. Powell, Republican, resulted upon the face of the returns in a tie, was won by Powell in casting lots by the board of election commissioners.

The Republican contestants have not yet announced whether or not they will take the case to the Court of Appeals.—Estill Tribune.

Postmaster O'Rear.

Mr. J. H. O'Rear has been notified of his appointment as postmaster of Clay City. Mr. O'Rear's appointment will meet with a general approval of the patrons of the office. He is well qualified for the position and will make us a good postmaster. He will be qualified and assume charge of the office in a few weeks, we learn. There are many disappointed applicants, all of whom are capable and worthy in every respect. The Times would like to have seen all or any one of them have got the place, but as all could not be supplied, we are pleased as equally well with Mr. O'Rear. The office will remain where it is now located which is the best location obtainable.

STANTON NEWS.

Mrs. Josiah Dehart visited at Lombard last week.

Mrs. Irvin, of Clay City, visited at Mrs. J. D. Atkinson's last week.

Mr. George Conlee and wife, of Richmond, were here visiting last week.

Miss Anna Hardwick visited her sister, Mrs. Mollie Crawford, of Jackson over Sunday.

Mr. Fred Blackburn attended the Educational Conference just held in Louisville.

Mr. A. T. Stewart visited his brother, C. L. Stewart, at Jackson Saturday and Sunday.

Major Blackburn, who has been quite sick with rheumatism is some better at this writing.

Mrs. Jeff Martin's father has been very sick for several weeks, but is some better at this writing.

Miss Tenna Derickson, of Mt. Canaan is visiting her brother, Algin Derickson, of Breathitt county.

Mr. Will Kash, of Jackson, was here this week on legal business. He is a rising young lawyer of that town.

Mrs. Callie Davis and little daughter, of Hamilton, Ohio, are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ance Norton, and her many kin folks.

Word comes to us that Prof. Buck will return to Stanton probably this week. We shall be glad to see him again after his long sickness.

Mrs. Ellen Hanks, of Spencer Station, died very suddenly last week. Her brother, Tom Caudill, was called there but arrived too late to see her alive.

Mr. C. C. Jackson, was in town this week visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Jackson. He is going to make Lexington his headquarters for a while.

Rev. J. C. Hanley and wife went to Lexington Monday where they saw the great play, "Joseph and his Brethren." They report the play as wonderful to see.

Mr. Vernon Myers, who has been working in Mt. Sterling, stopped off in Stanton on his way to his home in Jackson and called on one of our beautiful Stanton girls over Sunday.

We see by the papers that J. H. Hardwick, of Winchester has purchased a Ford automobile. Judge Hardwick will be riding up to see us some of these days when the roads are better.

News has just come that Miss Mayme Derickson has received the appointment as Postmaster of Stanton. This will be quite a disappointment to the other applicants but only one can receive such a plum.

Mrs. Kate Bohannon and son, Donald, visited in Jackson over Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Patrick. The writer was in Jackson Monday and heard some rumors that were complimentary, but we think too much of our Superintendent to hear of her leaving our town.

Rev. Walter McPherson, of the College of the Bible at Lexington, preached at the Christian church Sunday. Rev. C. S. Madden, of Caney, Morgan county, will preach at the Christian church the fourth Sunday in this month.

A double header set fire to the coal house of the writer and but for hard work on the part of Mr. Bill Scott and Mrs. Derthick both the homes, including Mr. Scott's would have been burned down as the coal house is between the two houses. A large hole was burned in the roof of the coal house.

Mr. Morrow and his wife have left for Birmingham, Ala., where Mr. Morrow has accepted a fine position as mechanical engineer, his old trade before coming to Stanton to be bookkeeper for Hardwick & Co. We regret to see them leave but do not blame them when it means $115 more salary a month.

Tom Conlee's home was burned to the ground last Tuesday night, a week ago. The origin of the fire is unknown. Mr. Conlee had a narrow escape and nothing was saved from the building. The fire started in the kitchen where there had been no fire for several days. There was $1500 insurance on the house.

The writer was on the head of Big Frozen last Sunday where he organized a Sunday School at the mouth of Rock Lick in Breathitt county. While on Wilson Branch he ran across Jim Mullins who used to live on Mr. J. C. Patrick's place. He wants to come back to Stanton as he said it was the best place where he had ever lived.

There will be a Sunday School Institute of the West Lexington Presbytery at Winchester April 22-24. A splendid program has been prepared with many prominent speakers from over the State to speak. Mr. T. B. Talbot, who has worked up the Institute, desires the writer to state that every body is welcome at this great meeting.

Mr. Green Caudill, of Hatton creek, sold his farm, through Mr. J. C. Patrick, to Mr. Morris, of Breathitt county, for $2,000 cash. He will move here in a few days. Mr. Caudill will move to his upper farm on the same creek. Mr. Morris is leaving his present home because whiskey is being carried by the wagon load in that neighborhood. We are glad to see men come to our county who are law-abiding men and want to get away from the awful effects of whiskey in a neighborhood.

The town Council met last Friday night and took some very important actions concerning those who have not or are refusing to pay taxes past due. A motion was passed directing the town marshal, Guy Crowe, to levy on all back taxes due the town. It was further stated that the town marshal is not allowed to offset any claims with taxes. The Council intends to use every means that the law allows to collect these taxes. Why any man should refuse to pay his taxes we cannot understand. The present Council has been paying off bad debts that were contracted before they came into office. All taxes collected from now on will be used to improve the town.

For the convenience of our subscribers, we have arranged club rates with the following papers at prices below mentioned:

The TIMES and
" Cincinnati Enquirer	$1.00
" Louisville Herald	1 00
" Home and Farm	80
" Inland Farmer	80
" Southern Agriculturist	80

The Clay City Times in a lengthy article goes into the question of Representative Gum's vote on the 2-cent rate bill, and refers us to the Courier-Journal to prove the assertion that Mr. Gum voted against the bill.

We think that the able editor of the Times should be so familiar with the proverbial inaccuracy and uncertainty of the daily press that he would not attempt to prove anything by a daily newspaper. We do not mean to question the veracity of any newspaper, nor do we wish to reflect discredit upon any paper, but we wish to remind the Times that errors are continually creeping into the columns of daily newspapers. Unfortunately and unintentionally the errors are published and go out as news. The record of Mr. Gum's vote was probably such an error.

The Clay City Times takes no notice of the statements in two Estill county papers, quoting Mr. Gum, that he voted for the bill.

After all, the matter is of minor importance, and we are disposed to dismiss it with the above statement.—Irvine Sun.

The Times fully understands the errors that creep into press reports, but we do not think the report of Mr. Gum's vote on the 2-cent car fare bill was one of these errors, and the Sun evidently begins to doubt it when it says "The record of Mr. Gum's vote was 'probably' such an error."

In its issue of March 26, the Times did take notice of Mr. Gum's statement in the two Estill county papers when he said he voted for the 2-cent bill, and suggested that Governor McCreary call the Legislature back into session that his vote might be counted as he said it was cast.

The Times regards the matter of great importance, as the passage of the bill would have saved the people of the State $900,000 per year, or enough before the Legislature meets again to pay off the State debt that is so seriously regarded by most Republicans.

We will concur in the Sun's request and dismiss the matter.

The U. S. census shows Kentucky to be in debt $4,450,000. The State debt according to the State Auditor is but $1,799,943 28. Republican papers that want to create a prejudice against the Democratic administration are displaying the larger figures in bold type and refer to it as "amazing". The State Auditor gives the exact figures and tells what the debt is for, itemizing the bonds and accounts. The Auditor is right, and no mind should be influenced by the extravagant assertions of papers directly opposing the government because their pals are not in power.

The withdrawal of the fire insurance companies is only encouraging arson. A person with a house insured for $1,000 and mortgaged for $1,000 cannot get even any other way only to burn and settle the mortgage with the insurance now in force, if he knows he cannot renew the loan without a policy, and knows that he cannot insure because the companies are leaving the State because they cannot further rob the insurers.

We have been informed that Governor Beckham has joined the tee-totalers. This is good news, and it makes his teachings and practices harmonize. The Times never wishes to do anyone an injustice, hence we publish this item without request, there having been some plain statements made to the contrary in our last issue.

ROMULUS JACKSON,
Master Com'r Powell Circuit Court.

Calvin Crank, of McCausey, in Menefee, has moved to the Duncan Branch camp, and Taylor Ingram, of Indian Creek, will probably move to one of the vacant houses on Gray's Branch.

It is so nearly impossible to get a letter out from here that I have missed two weeks, so that many good items have died a natural death and may not be resurrected. Will write every time I can.

The boarding-house, barn, and everybody, nearly, have crossed the river following up the works—Will Brewer, Cain Brisco and Alfred Abner being all that are left over here. Pigs, chickens and children being out, a lonesome quiet unrelieved by a squeal, a cackle, or a yard full of frolic.

Every log on this side of the river is in floating water, and so many have floated out and away that we hear there are more logs in the Clay City booms than there ever were before. But there's hustling been done here under the able administration of Manager F. S. Brown, a clever, quiet, capable and therefore always sober, executive.

The recent rains were hard enough to stop work for some hours and there was then right hustling after fishing-poles and red-worms and an exodus to the river. Some quiet hours passed, broken only by the waiting for a bite; and the exodus returned; Cain Brisco proudly bearing aloft a genuine three-inch sucker the others bearing as best they could the fisherman's usual luck.

The last log of the Brodhead-Garrett job on the Powell side of the river was trammed out the other day, and the scene of operations changed to the Menefee side where on Duncan Branch more than three thousand logs already cut, awaited the coming of team and tramcar. Work is in full swing there now with outlook good; and the sound of axe, saw and hammer, with the crack of the ox-gad is heard is the land, and the logs are pouring to the river—ready for a rise.

We have just received a full line of women's rust proof corsets in different styles at $1 00, $1 50 and $2 00. Every one guaranteed.

Farm Drain Tile

Make Your Wet Land Productive. By the use of drain tile you can turn that low, wet, useless, swampy field into the most productive spot on your farm. Good tile, properly placed, not only carries off surplus water, it admits air to the soil and makes it easy to work. It improves any soil. The increase in the value of the land is many times the cost of the tile. The first year's crop from tiled land pays for it. Any body can do the work successfully. Write for particulars or call at our plant.
